ARE LAWLESS LAWMAKERS FUNDING ROBERT MUELLER AND ROB ROSENSTEIN TO COMMIT TREASON? WHY? 62 Million U.S Citizens voted for Donald Trump for president. Is it the Russians interfering with US elections or the democrats and RINOS in the FBI, Intelligence, House of Representatives, U.S Senate, federal agencies, Chuck Schumer, Nancy Pelosi, the lying liberal radicals controlling the media, socialist professors, mobs, Nasty women, mockers of God?

Is it the United Nations planned invasion of our nation to position illegal aliens and Middle East Refugees in districts to vote democrat and bring down our U.S Constitution and Bill of Rights. The propaganda of Lawless Lawmakers spouting that the invasion of illegal aliens and immigrants in this nation are one and the same. THEY ARE NOT!!! People have no idea how many Middle East Muslims were brought into our country as REFUGEES by Obama, Jeh Johnson, Obama's DHS secretary and Sen. Marco Rubio. The propaganda that illegals want jobs...ah humbug! The Lawless Lawmakers use billions of tax dollars to subsidize these illegal invaders. Do many of them work for Pelosi vineyards in Napa Valley? Both parties rip off the U.S citizens by rewarding illegal invaders increasing our debt.

This is illegal behavior by lawless lawmakers. ARE LAWLESS LAWMAKERS COVERING UP FUNDS AVAILABLE FROM MEXICO DRUG BUST IN THE BILLIONS THAT COULD BE USED TO BUILD THE WALL. MEXICO COULD PAY FOR BUILDING THE WALL!

During his presidential campaign, Donald Trump repeatedly vowed to build a "big, beautiful wall" on the U.S.-Mexico border — and to make Mexico pay for it. Reality set in quickly after Trump became president. Neither Mexico nor U.S. taxpayers appear interested in putting up the money, which has left Republican lawmakers in Congress and around the nation scrambling to find ways to finance the project.

On Thursday, Oklahoma state Rep. Bobby Cleveland (R) floated a novel idea: Build the wall using funds taken though civil asset forfeiture — To people like Cleveland, civil forfeiture is all about giving law enforcement a weapon to crack down on Mexican cartels trafficking in Oklahoma. "This money is drug money," Cleveland said in a release. "The vast majority of it is either coming from Mexico or headed there. By redirecting this cash to construction efforts, Mexico will be paying for the wall just as promised.” The basic premise — make Mexican “criminals” pay to stop Mexican crime from coming into the U.S. — sounds similar to a proposal Sen. Ted Cruz (R-Texas) introduced earlier this week. Cruz’s plan would fund the wall using assets seized from Joaquín “El Chapo” Guzmán, the Mexican cartel boss extradited to the U.S. earlier this year. Citing the need to protect people’s due process and property rights, lawmakers in Oklahoma have been pushing to reform the state’s civil asset forfeiture laws.

Cleveland says he hopes to officially introduce his proposal before the end of the current legislative session. Read article and see how lawless lawmakers sabotage our national security and allow invasion to continue. Trump voters, there are 62 million of us. We must hold lawless lawmakers accountable. Our Congress is USELESS. We, American citizens, are being hoodwinked.

Cruz: Seize money from drug lords to fund border wall BY MARK HENSCH - 04/25/17

Sen. Ted Cruz (R-Texas) is introducing a bill to allow assets seized from drug lords, like Joaquin “El Chapo” Guzman, to fund President Trump’s proposed wall along the U.S.-Mexico border. Cruz’s bill, the Ensuring Lawful Collection of Hidden Assets to Provide Order Act, also known as the “El Chapo Act,” is a reference to the Mexican drug kingpin from the Sinaloa cartel.

The U.S. government is seeking $14 billion from the drug lord as part of its prosecution of Guzman.

“Fourteen billion dollars will go a long way toward building a wall that will keep Americans safe and hinder the illegal flow of drugs, weapons and individuals across our southern border,” Cruz said Tuesday, according to Axios. The U.S. government routinely seizes assets from alleged drug dealers and traffickers. Rep. Jim Sensenbrenner (R-Wis.) introduced similar legislation in February, the BuildWall Act, which would allow money forfeited from drug traffickers to improve border security, including a wall. Cruz’s bill comes as the White House pushes for funding to begin work on the border wall. Last week, officials suggested they would want to see some funds in an upcoming spending bill lawmakers must pass to avoid a government shutdown on Friday. That put Trump at odds with Democrats who strongly oppose the wall, and with Republican congressional leaders who worried a fight over funding the initiative could stall the spending bill and lead to a politically costly shutdown.

But Trump on Monday said he is open to getting funding for the wall this fall.

WATCH FAYE ON YOUTUBE

Senate Minority Leader Charles Schumer (D-N.Y.) said Tuesday a deal for averting a government shutdown would be possible if Trump dropped his demand for wall funding. "If the threat of the wall is removed ... our negotiations can continue and we can hopefully resolve all of the outstanding issues by Friday," he said from the Senate floor.

LAW MAKERS KNOW THIS!!! THEY MUST BE CONFRONTED NOW!

There are billions of dollars available confiscated from CONVICTED Mexican drug dealers. Our Lawless Lawmakers are useless. They do nothing that is in the best interest of American citizens. They are paid full time even though they do nothing but spend and waste money. They only work a few days a year. It is time the 62 million of us unite and Investigate their back room deals that reward themselves for corrupt policies.

CHRISTITANS ARE BEING TAKE FOR ABSOUTE IDIOTS. AMERICAN CITIZENS ARE UNDER SEIGE.

IT IS TIME TO WAKE UP! The dems and RINOs have/are putting this nation in grave danger. Nancy Pelosi needs to be exposed. Why Is Nancy Pelosi the Most Dangerous Woman in America? Most people see Pelosi exactly the way she wants them to: a cultured San Franciscan politician from an esteemed family. But underneath the Chanel suit and Mikimoto pearls is a true political boss-as in T weed. Don't be fooled by her image as a caring, grandmotherly public servant. Nancy Pelosi is all business. She's the Boss charts Pelosi's carefully orchestrated rise to power as a uniquely American ruling-class diva who is not so subtly replacing "by the people, for the people" with "have your people call my people."

From her father- a congressman, and then mayor of Baltimore whose political machine was tainted by scandal, -Pelosi learned about patronage, ruthlessness, and the credo of the party boss: never admit to anything, never apologize, and attack when challenged. As Speaker of the House, Pelosi once pounded her gavel so hard it left a dent in the lectern. She frightens even those who agree with her on almost everything. She punishes those who stand in her way. And her hypocrisy knows no bounds: While Pelosi spends millions in taxpayers' dollars to green up the capital and expects Americans to pay for their carbon footprints, she demands a bigger jet for her trips across the globe as well as military G5s for holiday weekends. She claims to act for the benefit of the American people, yet enriches her family's portfolio through pet legislation and personal financial dealings. She tried to enact taxpayer funding for abortions, defying the teachings of the Catholic Church, of which she is a member. With promises of utopia, she drives massive legislation deals through Congress by stiff arm twisting, knowing she and her allies will profit at the expense of the electorate. It will be clear after reading She's the Boss that the party works for Pelosi.

Micah 1

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

Where are we?

As a contemporary of Isaiah and Hosea, Micah prophesied during the momentous years surrounding the tragic fall of Israel to the Assyrian Empire (722 BC), an event he also predicted (Micah 1:6). Micah stated in his introduction to the book that he prophesied during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah in Judah, failing to mention the simultaneous string of dishonorable kings that closed out the northern kingdom of Israel. During this period, while Israel was imploding from the effects of evil and unfaithful leadership, Judah seemed on a roller-coaster ride—ascending to the heights of its destiny in one generation, only to fall into the doldrums in another. In Judah at this time, good kings and evil kings alternated with each other, a pattern seen in the reigns of Jotham (good, 2 Kings 15:32–34); Ahaz (evil, 2 Kings 16:1–4); and Hezekiah (good, 2 Kings 18:1–7). Why is Micah so important?

The book of Micah provides one of the most significant prophecies of Jesus Christ’s birth in all the Old Testament, pointing some seven hundred years before Christ’s birth to His birthplace of Bethlehem and to His eternal nature (Micah 5:2).

Surrounding Micah’s prophecy of Jesus’s birth is one of the most lucid pictures of the world’s future under the reign of the Prince of Peace (5:5). This future kingdom, which scholars call the millennial kingdom, will be characterized by the presence of many nations living with one another in peace and security (4:3–4) and coming to Jerusalem to worship the reigning king, that is, Jesus Himself (4:2). Because these events have not yet occurred, we look forward to the millennial kingdom at some undetermined time in the future.

What’s the big idea?

Much of Micah’s book revolves around two significant predictions: one of judgment on Israel and Judah (Micah 1:1–3:12), the other of the restoration of God’s people in the millennial kingdom (4:1–5:15).

Judgment and restoration inspire fear and hope, two ideas wrapped up in the final sequence of Micah’s prophecy, a courtroom scene in which God’s people stand trial before their Creator for turning away from Him and from others (6:1–7:20). In this sequence, God reminds the people of His good works on their behalf, how He cared for them while they cared only for themselves. But rather than leave God’s people with the fear and sting of judgment, the book of Micah concludes with the prophet’s call on the Lord as his only source of salvation and mercy (7:7), pointing the people toward an everlasting hope in their everlasting God.

How do I apply this? Much of Micah’s indictment against Israel and Judah involves these nations’ injustice toward the lowly—unjust business dealings, robbery, mistreatment of women and children, and a government that lived in luxury off the hard work of its nation’s people. Where does the injustice dwell in your own life? Who are the lowly in your life? Do you need a call toward repentance, like the people of Israel and Judah did?

Micah’s impassioned plea for God’s chosen people to repent will cut many of us to the quick. Most of us don’t decide daily to cut people down or find ways to carry out injustice. Instead, we do it out of habit.

Let's allow the words of Micah to be Breaking News!

Former assistant football coach Joe Kennedy at Bremerton Memorial Stadium on Nov. 5, 2015. Kennedy is in a conflict with the Bremerton School District over his silent prayer after football games. Larry Steagall Jan. 22, 2019, 10:19 AM EST

By Pete Williams

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Supreme Court declined Tuesday to take up the appeal of a Washington state high school football coach who lost his job after he refused to stop praying on the field immediately after games. Joseph Kennedy's firing as assistant coach at Bremerton High School in 2015 made headlines nationwide. During a 2016 campaign event, Donald Trump called it "very, very sad and outrageous."

Kennedy became a coach in 2008 and later began offering a brief prayer on the field after games ended and the players and coaches had met midfield to shake hands. He would drop to one knee and, in the words of his Supreme Court appeal, "offer a silent or quiet prayer of thanksgiving for player safety, sportsmanship and spirited competition."

His religious beliefs, Kennedy's appeal said, "require him to give thanks through prayer at the end of each game."

No one complained about the prayers, but when school district officials became aware, they reminded him of a policy that prohibits school staff from indirectly encouraging students to engage in religious activity or discouraging them from doing so, because it would be perceived as endorsing or opposing religious activity. Bremerton assistant football coach Joe Kennedy, obscured at center in blue, is surrounded by players in prayer in Bremerton, Washington, on Oct. 16, 2015. Meegan M. Reid / Kitsap Sun via AP file Kennedy briefly stopped his prayers but then resumed them, and his dust up with the school district attracted widespread attention. After a game in October 2015, he knelt on the 50-yard line and was soon surrounded by other coaches and players, as well as spectators who came onto the field from the stands. A week later, after again praying on the field after a game, he was placed on leave. The district did not re-hire him for the following season. He sued, claiming the school district violated his rights of free expression and religious freedom, but lower federal courts ruled against him. They held that his prayers were not entitled to the kind of protection an individual would have, because he was acting in his capacity as a public employee and disregarding a requirement for the government to remain neutral in religious matters.

He was dressed in school colors, still on the job, and responsible for the conduct of his players, the trial judge said, and a reasonable observer would have seen his actions as a coach "participating in, in fact leading, an orchestrated session of faith." The Billy Graham Evangelistic Association and other religious groups urged the Supreme Court to take the case. The Constitution "does not require schools to be policed as religion-free zones,” they said.

UPDATE OUR MISSION TO GIVE FOUNDERS BIBLES TO COLLEGE STUDENTS, BEGINNING AT UC..BERKELEY. WHY FOUNDERS BIBLE?

The Founders’ Bible uniquely illumines the very passages of Scriptures that inspired our Founders and formed the basis of our constitution, government and its guiding documents. 52% youth between ages of 18 – 29 are professing socialists. 37% believe in Capitalism. Most (millions) do not believe there is a God. We are praying and plan to lead a revival to win souls to Jesus Christ on the Berkeley campus and distribute 400 Founders Bibles as soon as we can get organized. When millions of Christians see no difference in good or evil or call evil good, we have a problem with the teaching of the gospel. Masses of our youth are hell bound without warning. The Lord spoke to me to take a truck filled with Founders Bibles to University of California, Berkeley.

I live in Florida.

WHY GIVE THE FOUNDERS BIBLES TO COLLEGE STUDENTS?

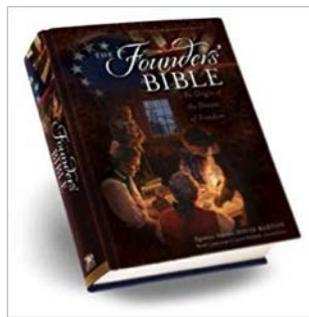

Before the remarkable words of our founding documents were ever penned, they were first preached from the pulpits of New England as people wrestled with the Scriptures for themselves as to 'how then shall we live.' This is the remarkable story of our deep spiritual heritage and the largely unknown historical foundations that produced a nation that once held the admiration of the entire world. It's also a roadmap we can follow so as to once again become that "shining city on a hill," a beacon of hope to the world around.

The Founders' Bible signature historian David

Barton shares the true story of how God used the brilliance of the Founding Fathers and generals to unite the colonies and lead them through the long, hard Revolutionary war. These men believed resistance to tyranny was a Christian duty because they were defending God-given rights. Such men as George Washington, Patrick Henry, Benjamin Rush, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and Benjamin Franklin established the firm foundations of the soon-to-be country; they made sure it was steadfastly planted in the Word of God.

These great, God-fearing men were put in just the right place at just the right time by the hand of God to fashion a nation that would promote freedom, discover equality, honor, faith, and providentially be a source of great blessing to the nations of the world! As a nation, with our backs to the wall, facing a looming cliff of disaster, we would do well to rediscover the wisdom of the Founders.

These were the men who courageously laid the groundwork and built the foundation that made our nation great. The Founders' Bible uses the trusted, updated New American Standard Bible (NASB), recognized by scholars as the most accurate, word for word translation of the Scriptures in the English language. With over 1000 pages of in-depth culturally relevant articles, insightful Biblical commentary from the Founders on a wide range of topics, and some of the most inspiring history of this nation's founding and the destiny and purpose God intended.

The supplementary material will inspire readers with renewed hope and appreciation for the sacrifice that was made to found this great nation, the unwavering commitment our Founding Fathers had to the importance to the Word of God for our lives as individuals, for shaping and guiding our society, and for providing the foundations of our unique system of government that has produced the most enduring legacy of freedom any nation has ever known.

Knowing where we came from will provide invaluable wisdom for where we are headed and what we can do to reclaim our lost heritage. Examine the Bible verses that provide the seed bed of understanding for justice, our legal system as it was intended, and the individual God-given rights and freedoms we possess.

PRAYER POINTS

PRAYING IN SOULS AND SOUL WINNERS. LEARN HOW TO LEAD ONE TO CHRIST AND SALVATION

The Christians, then, trace the beginning of their religion from Jesus the Messiah; and he is named the Son of God Most High. And it is said that God came down from heaven, and from a Hebrew virgin assumed and clothed himself with flesh; and the Son of God lived in a daughter of man. This is taught in the gospel, as it is called, which a short time was preached among them; and you also if you will read therein, may perceive the power which belongs to it. This Jesus, then, was born of the race of the Hebrews; and he had twelve disciples in order that the purpose of his incarnation might in time be accomplished. But he himself was pierced by the Jews, and he died and was buried; and they say that after three days he rose and ascended to heaven (Apol. 2).

Aristides makes it clear that Christians affirm a number of key truths:

1. The divinity of Jesus: “God came down from heaven” In the mind of Aristides, Jesus is not an angel, or a semi-divine being, but the very God of heaven itself.
2. The incarnation: “clothed himself with flesh” In very vivid language, the author affirms that Jesus is God enfleshed; he took upon himself a real human body (contra the Docetists).

3. The virgin birth: “from a Hebrew virgin” This doctrine flows naturally from the prior two. If Jesus is God, and he took on human flesh, then his conception would be distinctive from other human beings.

4. The authority of the Gospels: “taught in the gospel... and you also if you read therein, may perceive the power which belongs to it.” Notice for Aristides there are books called a “gospel” which you can “read” to learn more about the person of Jesus. Moreover, these gospels contain a certain “power,” which the reader can discern.

5. The authority of the apostles: “and he had twelve disciples” Aristides recognizes that Jesus had an authority structure through the twelve that was necessary “so that the purpose of his incarnation might in time be accomplished.”

6. His death on the cross: “pierced by the Jews” This is a clear reference to Jesus’ crucifixion under Pontius Pilate at the request of the Jewish leadership.

7. His resurrection: “after three days he rose” Jesus did not stay in the grave but was raised from the dead.

8. His ascension: “ascended into heaven” Jesus returned to his former heavenly home, in a position of power and glory. This is a surprisingly thorough and wide-ranging summary of core Christian doctrines at a very early point in the life of the church. And it was this form of Christianity that was publicly presented to the Emperor. Once again, we can see that core Christian beliefs were not latecomers that were invented in the fourth century (or later), but appear to have been in place from the very beginning. For more, visit Dr. Kruger's website: Canon Fodder. Pray for lawless lawmakers be removed from office. Call names of those you know! Pray for Nancy Pelosi's ties to organize crime to come to light.
