This week God gave me Nahum 3. God's judgement on Nineveh is "all because of the wanton lust of a harlot, alluring, the mistress of sorceries, who enslaved nations by her prostitution and peoples by her witchcraft"

(Nahum 3:4 NIV). Infidelity, according to the prophets, related to spiritual unfaithfulness.[16] For example: "the land is guilty of the vilest adultery in departing from the LORD" (Hosea 1:2 NIV).

So many Christian leaders and self declared prophets are touting hope for America based on our electing Pres. Trump?

Nahum 3

1. Woe to the city of blood, full of lies, full of plunder, never without victims!
2. The crack of whips, the clatter of wheels, galloping horses and jolting chariots!
3. Charging cavalry, flashing swords and glittering spears! Many casualties, piles of dead, bodies without number, people stumbling over the corpses--
4. All because of the wanton lust of a prostitute, alluring, the mistress of sorceries, who enslaved nations by her prostitution and peoples by her witchcraft.
5. I am against you,' declares the LORD Almighty. 'I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness and the kingdoms your shame.
6. I will pelt you with filth, I will treat you with contempt and make you a spectacle.
7. All who see you will flee from you and say, 'Nineveh is in ruins--who will mourn for her?' Where can I find anyone to comfort you?'
8. Are you better than Thebes, situated on the Nile, with water around her? The river was her defense, the waters her wall.

9. Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength; Put and Libya were among her allies.
10. Yet she was taken captive and went into exile. Her infants were dashed to pieces at every street corner. Lots were cast for her nobles, and all her great men were put in chains.
11. You too will become drunk; you will go into hiding and seek refuge from the enemy.
12. All your fortresses are like fig trees with their first ripe fruit; when they are shaken, the figs fall into the mouth of the eater.
13. Look at your troops-- they are all weaklings. The gates of your land are wide open to your enemies; fire has consumed the bars of your gates.
14. Draw water for the siege, strengthen your defenses! Work the clay, tread the mortar, repair the brickwork!
15. There the fire will consume you; the sword will cut you down-- they will devour you like a swarm of locusts. Multiply like grasshoppers, multiply like locusts!
16. You have increased the number of your merchants till they are more numerous than the stars in the sky, but like locusts they strip the land and then fly away.
17. Our guards are like locusts, your officials like swarms of locusts that settle in the walls on a cold day-- but when the

19. Nothing can heal you; your wound is fatal. All who hear the news about you clap their hands at your fall, for who has not felt your endless

UNDERSTANDING NAHUM'S PROPHETIC CALL

Compare to America Today and Our Call to Prayer!

If I mentioned the city Nineveh, what would come to your mind? Most likely you would say Jonah. We have all heard the story about Jonah being swallowed by the great fish and then going to Nineveh to preach against the city. His message was short and to the point, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.”

The city, from the king to the dogcatcher, repented. Have you ever wondered what happened to Nineveh after that? The short prophetic book of Nahum tells us “the rest of the story.”

A case can be made for the proclamation of the message, and writing of the book, about 650 BC. If this is the correct date, the Spirit of God used this book to put King Manasseh into a position where he could come to faith and bring Judah back to the LORD.

Up until this point in the reign of King Manasseh, the kingdom, led by the king, was “more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel” (2 Chr 33:9). The LORD sent seers (prophets) to speak to the nation, but the nation would not listen to the Word of God (33:10, 18). While not named, one of the seers was probably Nahum.

His vision concerning the total destruction of Nineveh would be seen by the Assyrian overlords as fomenting rebellion and insurrection, and possibly seen as support for Shamash-shum-ukin, the king of Babylon, in his current civil war with his brother Ashurbanipal II.

The LORD brought upon them [Judah] the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon (2 Chr 33:11).

Upon his return to Jerusalem, Manasseh began building projects in the city as well as elsewhere in Judah and removed the idols and altars he had placed in the Temple (2 Chr 33:14–15).

He also repaired the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace offerings and thanks offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel (33:16).

This activity was in accord with what Nahum had challenged the people to do. Behold, on the mountains, the feet of him who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace! O Judah, keep your appointed feast, perform your vows. For the wicked one shall no more pass through; he is utterly cut off (1:15).

The challenge was for Judeans to renew their pilgrimages to Jerusalem for the thrice-yearly feasts of Pesach (Passover), Shav'ot (Pentecost) and Succoth (Tabernacles) (Ex 23:14–17; 34:22–24; Dt 16:16, 17).

There was also a command for the remnant that faithfully prayed to the LORD desiring to bring the nation back to Biblical worship and to bring the king to the LORD. They were to perform the vow they had made to the LORD. The Bible records a half-hearted attempt to return to Biblical worship, “Nevertheless, the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God” (2 Chr 33:17). The only true place of worship was the Temple in Jerusalem, not the high places.

Nahum prophesied the destruction of Nineveh, the capital of the sole superpower, at the zenith of Assyria's power and glory. He boldly proclaimed a message that was not popular, nor “politically correct.” In fact, most Judeans would think his prediction of the downfall of Nineveh impossible. The LORD has given a command concerning you [the king of Assyria]: “Your name shall be perpetuated no longer. Out of the house of your gods I will cut off the carved image and molded image. I will dig your grave, for you are vile” (1:14).

These words were a direct attack on Assur and the rest of the Assyrian deities, as well as the king. Yet Nahum boldly proclaimed the message God gave him, in spite of the potential threat to his life!

In the context of the book, Nahum sees a vision of chariots in the streets of Nineveh.

Take the Booty and Run!

(Na 2:9, 10) Nineveh was the Fort Knox of mid-seventh century BC Mesopotamia. One of the excavators of Nineveh has commented that very little gold and silver has been found in the ruins of the city. The Medes and Babylonians, “cleaned house” after they conquered the city, just as Nahum predicted.

The king of Assyria tried to take his wealth with him. At best, the gold and silver melted and were collected later. The Bible is clear that people cannot take their wealth with them to the afterlife—but it can be sent on ahead! The Lord Jesus admonished His disciples to, “lay up for themselves treasures in heaven” (Mt. 6:19–21).

In verse 13, the LORD states directly, Behold, I am against you. I will burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messenger shall be heard no more.

While the Assyrian warriors loved to depict themselves as mighty lions hunting their prey, Nahum pictured them as lions that would be hunted down. The Assyrian kings also boasted that they were mighty hunters in royal lion hunts; Nahum pictured them as the lions being hunted in the lion hunt. By these reversals Nahum created an unexpected twist on Assyrian usage.

According to Nahum the Assyrians were like lions, to be sure; however, not in the way that they depicted themselves; rather than being like lions on the prowl for prey, the hunters would become the hunted!

Nahum was keenly aware of the culture that he was writing to and was able to effectively use it to convey a powerful message from the LORD.

Nineveh, a Bloody City (Na 3:1)

Nahum pronounces:

The city and the Assyrian Empire had a well-earned reputation for being bloody. Just a casual glance at the reliefs from the palaces of Sennacherib and Ashurbanipa. I One panel graphically shows their disrespect for human life.

Na 3:3) There is an old adage that says, “What goes around, comes around.” The Bible would use an agricultural metaphor, “You reap what you sow” (cf. Gal 6:7). This is true in the geo-political realm as well as the personal realm.

The Assyrians, over their long history, were brutal and barbaric people. Yet there came a point in history where God said, “Enough is enough,” and He removed the offending party (Na 2:13; 3:4).

A call to Action is to identify U S Senators that did not vote to ban abortions after 20 weeks. 51 senators would not vote to halt this pain to the unborn. I literally cringed. This vote let me see how godless the majority of senators are and the Holy Spirit is grieved. So many Christian leaders and self declared prophets are touting hope for America based on our electing Pres. Trump. We truly made headway in the Oval Office but the lawless lawmakers must go- this year. We must recognize we get what we pray for.

We cannot get over confident or comfortable. Our work is cut out for us. We must stay informed, watch, fast, pray specifically & act according to God’s Word. We must know the facts and the will of the Father.

Our 2018 mission is intact:

- (A) Confront the Nasty Women Movement;
- (B) Confront the Lawmakers that raided and spent the Social Security Trust fund and just passed the law to reduce Social Security pay outs, WHILE PROTECTION THEIR TAX FUNDED PENSION FUND
- (C) Be a voice for seniors and pray for equality for SS recipients compared to tax subsidies going to illegal aliens, Mid East refugees, the Congress and federal employees pensions, believe God that every criminal act by members of Congress comes to light and justice served.

(D) Bind the violence and a civil war in our streets by illegals, mobs, radical Muslims & Nasty women.

(E) Stop billions of federal assistance going to illegals including, gangs, criminals, human traffickers and drug dealers. We CAN NOT LET UP FOR A MOMENT.

(F) Take Bible studies and Bibles to colleges to win souls of our youth.

ARE DEMOCRATS A THREAT TO OUR NATIONAL SECURITY, LIBERTY AND FREEDOM?

How do we remove them from power? Vote them out and expose any criminal acts they commit or have committed in Congress through the power of prayer.

Exposure of the Democrats in Congress at the State of the Union Address was/are un-American, unconstitutional, un-Christian, ungodly, lawless, unpatriotic.

During the powerful State of the Union Address, the democrats true agenda and character were revealed for millions to see. As I watched their disdain for the duly elected President my thoughts were; these liberals are a threat to our sovereignty, security, freedom, and freedom to serve the living God. They need to go home without pay or benefits until after the election in November.

They are useless!

All they have done for a year is “resist”, thwart the acts of Congress and slander the President and those who voted for him. This is a “spiritual battle”. The democrats in Congress with the help of the godless secular media are carrying out the agenda of the witches....to remove Pres. Trump from office, promote poverty, and flooding our nation with foreigners to vote for democrats.

It is vital that we stay accurate in the direction God has given us in prayer. The spiritual war must be won now by tearing Satan’s kingdom down. America is a divided people and we must bridge the gulf between those indoctrinated and send forth the truth and not give in or give up. We will start by sending Bibles and Bible studies to college campuses, beginning at Berkeley in CA. Our going to the darkest places is where we will find our youth. Our delays are due to lack of finances. We need a miracle! Pray for us to receive a large donation to launch our mission. Our 2018 vision will be fruitful. Insight partners are faithful. Thank you for your support and prayers. Our vision and mission is clear and broad.

The ultimate goal is to pray a pro life, pro U S Constitution, pro American, pro sovereignty, pro Christian victory in November elections. We must vote out all criminals, Communists, pro death, Nasty Women, members of the Senate and House in both parties.

The Republicans are on a retreat this week end to plan Nov. election strategy. The only way republicans will win is to concentrate on getting Conservatives out to vote. Christians must take the primaries serious and understand our absence in elections gave the liberals, godless, and atheist control of our government and courts.

I am doing everything possible to recruit mature, informed, anointed prayer warriors to increase our power in the spirit. To be victorious, we must know God’s battle plan, who the enemy is and where he is hiding. Right now the corruption of the FBI, DOJ and NSA is about to be exposed. I believe it is because of our specific praying. Their spying on Americans is coming to light. It was/is illegal.

However, the criminal activity of members of Congress is being covered up and their billion dollar slush fund is still available to them. Only God can uncover their hidden crimes and tax dollars used to pay off victims and lawyers to protect their evil doings.

The Lord has been leading me to increase our prayer power. We will use the example of Jeremiah Lanphier. Dutch Reform Church NY City 1857, prior to Civil War. The Businessmen’s Revival of 1857-1858. In 1857, the North Dutch Church in New York City hired a businessman, Jeremiah Lanphier, to be a lay missionary. He prayed, "Lord, what would you have me do?" Concerned by the anxious faces of businessmen on the streets of New York City, Lanphier decided to open the church at noon so businessmen could pray. The first meeting was set for September 23--three weeks before the Bank Panic of 1857. Six attended the first week, 20 the next, then 40, then they switched to daily meetings. Before long all the space was taken, and other churches also began to open up for businessmen's prayer meetings.

15 Revivals broke out everywhere in 1857, spreading throughout the United States and world. Sometimes called The Great Prayer Meeting Revival, an estimated 1,000,000 people were added to America's church rolls, and as many as 1,000,000 of the 4,000,000 existing church members also converted.

Based on Nahum's example we will pray Wednesdays at noon – 1 PM EST for 40 weeks beginning the first Wednesday in February. This will be 40 days and end in November---thru election day. We will pray for an outpouring of the spirit of God to bring souls into the kingdom.. We will call names out to the Lord.

The following issues are in need of prayer:

NASTY WOMEN RINO SENATORS VOTE NO AGAINST THE PAIN CAPABLE UNBORN CHILD PROTECTON ACT

January 29, 2013

A Painful Reality

It was painful to watch just how beholden the Left is to the abortion mentality as the Senate voted yesterday evening 51-46 against sending the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act (H.R. 36, S. 2311) to the floor for a vote (60 votes were needed for it to proceed). The Pain bill would ban abortions after five months, when research shows an unborn child is capable of feeling pain. Senators Susan Collins (R-Maine) and Lisa Murkowski (R-Alaska) broke rank with their Republican colleagues and voted against the motion. Senators Bob Casey (D-Penn.), Joe Donnelly (D-Ind.) and Joe Manchin (D-W.Va.) were the only three Democrats to cast affirmative votes. President Trump, who addressed attendees of this year's March for Life, expressed disappointment with the outcome of the Senate vote. "We must defend those who cannot defend themselves. I urge the Senate to reconsider its decision and pass legislation that will celebrate, cherish, and protect life," he said in a statement released by the White House.

Democrats trotted out their familiar tired arguments that the Republicans are trying to drive women back to "back alley butchers" or bring the Handmaid's Tale to life by protecting unborn children.

Senator Patty Murray (R-Wa.) called the bill an "extreme ideological abortion ban," and claimed that it revealed how "out of touch" the Republican party is with the American people "As a doctor, I must look at the scientific evidence," said Senator Bill Cassidy (R-La.). "At 20 weeks, studies have revealed that babies can feel pain...that is why fetal anesthesia is administered when unborn children require surgery in the womb."

Not only do these unborn children feel pain, but as noted in FRC's white paper on fetal pain, unborn children at this age feel pain even more acutely than children outside the womb because their pain receptors are not only fully developed but are far closer to the surface of the skin than they are at birth. Tony Perkins' Washington Update is written with the aid of FRC Action senior writers.

PRAYER POINTS

Anoint every name and call it out to God. Repeat, God is able to keep what we commit to Him. Ask God to forgive us for electing them to office and wake up God's people to rise up and stand against their evil ways and hidden crimes.

Here are some of the verses that I found that talk about Government and what our role is.

Romans 13:1-7

“Let every person be in subjection to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those which exist are established by God. Therefore he who resists authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves. For rulers are not a cause of fear for good behavior, but for evil. Do you want to have no fear of authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same; for it is a minister of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword for nothing; for it is a minister of God, an avenger who brings wrath upon the one who practices evil. Wherefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also for conscience’ sake.”

These are the Senators that voted to ban the Pain Capable Unborn Child Protection HR 36.

Americans elected them. We must repent and vote them out of office this year. Pray the Word of God over them to remove evil doers. Next week we will pray over House members

These Republicans Voted Against the Bill to Defund the Planned Parenthood Abortion Biz

STEVEN ERTEL

Republicans in the House of Representatives yesterday voted for a Reconciliation bill that would defund the Planned Parenthood abortion business.

This was the second attempt to get enough votes on the reconciliation bill that would not only defund the nation’s biggest abortion corporation but also repeal major portions of Obamacare.

The House voted 217-212 for the bill to defund Panned Parenthood with Republicans voting 217-20 for it and Democrats voting 192-0 against it. The legislation now moves to the Senate for consideration.

These Republicans were not on board with the pro-life vote to protect taxpayers from being forced to fund the abortion industry

“All Christians & people of faith across America were dealt a major setback...”

The pro-life bill would eliminate more than $390 million (over 86%) of over $450 million in annual federal funding to Planned Parenthood, from all mandatory spending programs. The measure also redirects funding to community health centers which outnumber Planned Parenthood facilities 20 to 1 and offer a wider array of health care services, but not abortion. AHCA also repeals Obamacare abortion subsidies, adds reforms to give states more flexibility and lower costs, and provides families more options. The bill would close the largest pipeline for federal funding of Planned Parenthood, Medicaid, and it applies as well to the CHIP and the Title V and Title XX block grant programs. Importantly, the bill ensures Obamacare will not fund abortions.

Lt. Gen. Jerry Boykin-FRC
CHRISTIAN BAKERS LOSE COURT APPEAL Faye,
Freedom of religion in America has taken a backseat to the wants and whims of liberal extremists.

All Christians and people of faith across America were dealt a major setback in our fight to practice our faith in the public square last week when two bakers in Oregon were denied their First Amendment rights by an appeals court.

We're headed down a dangerous road as a nation, and if we don't reverse course soon, rampant intimidation and discrimination against Christians and people of faith will become the new norm.

The latest dust-up over the mention of religion in the public square involves Housing and Urban Development Secretary Ben Carson, whose big crime is attending a Bible study with other members of President Trump's cabinet. The Freedom from Religion Foundation (FFRF), whose feathers are ruffled over this, is purportedly concerned about staffers being "coerced" into the Bible study, or public funds being spent on it. Secretary Carson got that out of the way up front, writing on his Facebook page: "First of all, taxpayer funds are not used to support the ministry, . . . And secondly, no staff are involved in the Bible study."

He continued: "I refuse to be intimidated by anti-religious groups into relinquishing my spirituality or religious beliefs [...] One of the principles of our nation's founding is freedom of religion. I will not stop being a Christian while in service to this country [...] In fact, it is my faith that helps me serve the nation even better."

Secretary Carson also drew a lesson from the history of the Cold War between the U.S. and former Soviet Union: "Joseph Stalin, the Russian tyrant who said the United States could be destroyed from within by eroding three things: our patriotism, our morality, and our spirituality [...] These things are currently under severe attack. We the people must decide who we are and what we stand for." Amen

---

But the larger issue and more important issue at play here is that some people and groups simply can't stand the idea of a visible Christian presence in our country. They oppose any public display of Christianity or prayer, offering various attempts to legally justify their opposition, most often that such displays “establish” a religion (they don’t). Their ultimate goal is to either drive Christians from government or at minimum force them to hide their faith so that the net result is the same -- government devoid of godly men and women. IF THEY WIN THEIR LAW SUIT..TAX PAYERS HAVE TO PAY THEIR LIBERAL LAWYERS. Your Congress made lawless law.

Think about that for a moment. Do we not pray for godly government? Doesn’t Scripture say that people rejoice when the godly rule? That happens when godly men and women serve in government -- despite their faith -- but because of their faith. Tony Perkins’ Washington Update is written with the aid of FRC Action senior writer
